

What can be covered?

Check the tables below to find out if your goods can be covered under a Coverfreight Cargo Insurance policy.

Covered >

These goods are covered under a standard Coverfreight policy.

You can arrange a policy online via our website.

Agriculture products in dry freight form	Clothing - high value per item or fashion brand nature	Machinery (except mobile machinery)
Appliances and electrical goods	Commercial furniture and office equipment	Marine vessels including parts
Artwork, antiques and collectibles less than AUD10,000 per item	Consumer products - non-perishable and low in value per item	Medical equipment
Aviation parts	Cosmetics and perfumes	Motor cars (including parts)
Beverage products non-perishable except bottled spirits or wines	Costume jewelleryes	Motor cycles (including parts)
Books, paper and stationery products	Cotton and wool	Musical equipment
Building materials of a fragile nature like coils, granite, marble, steel sheets or tiles	Fiberglass products	Photographic and video equipment
Building materials of a non-fragile nature including bagged cement, metal, steel and timber products	Food products (non-perishable excluding any temperature controlled products)	Plastic products
Buses, mobile machinery, trucks and trailers including parts	Frozen food products (excluding fruit and vegetables)	Precision instruments
Ceramics	Frozen non-food products (excluding pharmaceuticals)	Railway vehicles - including parts
Chemicals and other dangerous goods	Glassware	Recreation vehicles - including parts
Chilled food products (excluding fruit and vegetables)	Hardware and tools	Sporting goods
Chilled non-food products (excluding pharmaceuticals)	Hides and skins	Wood products.
Clothing - low value per item and low value fabrics	Leather products

Not Covered >

These goods cannot be covered under a Coverfreight policy.

Bullion	Goods which are excluded by law, regulations or statute of any Jurisdiction to or through which the property is transported	Precious stones
Cash securities and/or other cash equivalents	Precious jewellery	Fruit and vegetables with frozen and chilled nature
Counterfeit, illegal or pirated goods	Precious metals

Refer to Coverfreight >

These goods are not covered under a standard Coverfreight policy. Our specialist team of insurance brokers can provide a tailor-made solution to suit your specific needs.

Alcoholic beverages, spirits and wines	Live animals	Artwork, antiques and collectibles greater than AUD10,000 per item
Blood products	Live plants	Household goods and personal effects
Bulk shipment	Pharmaceuticals	Frozen and chilled goods that exceed a value of AUD$500,000
Computers, handheld electronics products, mobile telephones including electronic components of these	Tobacco or tobacco products	Shipments that exceed a value of AUD$1,000,000